

Suffer the Little Children

Brief description: Stained glass panel from centre light showing a man with a walking stick holding his hand out to a woman, begging. Below them is a woman bending down towards a figure in another panel. In the background are buildings including a church.

Stained glass panel showing a man on the right with a beard and a walking stick holding his hand out to the woman on the left of the scene, begging. The woman is wearing a white head scarf, blue robes and a red shawl, she is standing on some stairs. Below these figures is a fair-haired woman bending down (towards a figure laying on the steps in panel ELYGM.1973.3.8). The woman is wearing a red tunic with blue sleeves and a brown cape, she has a white tunic draped over her arm, and this represents her charitable act of providing clothing to the poor.
