Scenes from the life of the Virgin

Brief description: Two panel light depicting the annunciation to the Virgin, featuring the Archangel Gabriel. Base panel shows cruciform floral design.

This light is the leftmost one of a larger window (ELYGM:1976.4). The base panel hs a symmetrical floral design based on a cross. The upper panel depicts the archangel Gabriel, in a blue robe with a white over-robe, and red wings. He gestures to the Virgin Mary in the next light, telling her she is pregnant with Christ. The border around St. Gabriel depicts roundels of cinquefoil (five-lobed) yellow stain flowers, foliage, animal masks, and fleur de lys. This window was designed in c. 1340 and heavily restored in 1866.
