

The Adoration

Brief description: Stained glass panel depicting the Virgin Mary, the baby Jesus and three Magi with gifts. Made by C E Clutterbuck, in about 1867.

Stained glass panel depicting Mary with the infant Jesus and three Magi each holding their gifts. Mary is seated on a raised dais and behind her is an intense blue sky. She wears a rich ruby gown under a pale blue mantle. She is not nimbed but wears a cream shawl. The Magi are gorgeously attired and have simple gold crowns or headbands. All are pale skinned and bearded and hold their offerings. Figure on the right has a box of coins. Centre figure with covered ciborium. Figure on the left kneels with censer. Made by Charles Edmund Clutterbuck, in about 1867.
