

The Life of Christ and Crucifixion

Brief description: Framed design for a stained glass window made up of five lights, rose and a tracery. The centre light depicts the crucifixion, the four surrounding lights depict events from Jesus' life and all show nimbed figures. The left light depicts the nativity. The tracery lights show angels holding scrolls with inscriptions. Designed by Heaton, Butler and Bayne

This detailed design by the nineteenth-century firm Heaton, Butler and Bayne was for a five light window depicting the life of Christ. In the central light Christ is crucified. Each main scene is framed under an architectural canopy and draws attention to Christ's splendour and majesty. The tracery continues this theme, showing the sacred monogram 'IHS', the Alpha and Omega and early Christian symbol the 'Chi-Ro', formed by the first two letters of the Greek spelling of Christ. Ruby and blue are the predominant colours in this window.
