

Scenes from the Life of Christ

Brief description: Three light window. Stained glass window made up of 3 lights. One shows the crucifixion, the other the Mary's at the tombs and the other the nativity. Designed and made by William Warrington, in about 1850.

Stained glass window made up of 3 lights. One shows the crucifixion, the other the Mary's at the tombs and the other the nativity. The decorative background and 'jewelled' borders in this window are an integral part of the design. Scenes depicting Christ's life are enclosed in mandolas and quatrelobes. The figures are thin and small with much shading on the drapery.
